Hi everyone,

I've got a site up with free music for films, games and other media:

soundimage.org/

It's all original music...all my own stuff. All I ask is to be credited as indicated on my homepage.

I sincerely hope my tracks are helpful. Any and all feedback is welcome and always appreciated.

All the best,

Eric

Hello Fellow Content Creators,

If anyone happens to be creating Halloween-themed projects, there are lots of scary tracks on my Dark/Ominous pages as well as my Horror/Surreal pages that you can use:

soundimage.org/dark-ominous/

soundimage.org/dark-ominous-2/

soundimage.org/horrorsurreal/

soundimage.org/horror-2/

My next big project will to create super high-quality Ogg versions of all of my Sci-Fi tracks. If you happen to need some that aren't converted yet, just me know and I'll move them to the front of the list.

Speaking of Sci-Fi tracks, here's a brand new one that might come in handy:

A FUTURE IN SPACE – (Looping) – An upbeat piece depicting humans and their technology venturing out into the cosmos.

soundimage.org/sci-fi-9/

Enjoy and keep being creative!

Happy Halloween! (Okay, a couple of days early.)

In honor of this spooky holiday, here are some free new tracks that might be helpful for spooky games. They're haunting my Fantasy 11 page:

SPOOKY ENCHANTMENT – (Looping)

THE GHOSTIES' NIGHT OUT – (Looping)

THE GHOSTIES' NIGHT OUT_v001 – (Looping)

soundimage.org/fantasy-11/

NEWS

All of the tracks on my Sci-Fi 2 page are now available in higher quality Ogg format.

soundimage.org/sci-fi-2/

Advantages of Ogg files:

- Game engines handle them better for looping...MP3 files occasionally need editing.
- They sound fantastic...almost as good as the original WAVs.
- They are small in size.
- They're a cool way to support my work!

Enjoy and please stay safe.

Greetings everyone,

Here are this week's new music tracks. 100% free to use with attribution.

If you find my work helpful, please consider making a small donation on my site through PayPal to help support it. I don't allow advertising on the site because I feel it would be distracting to my visitors so I pay for everything myself. Also, the keyboards I use to create free music for everyone are very expensive...I actually make monthly payments for them...so donations from the community help me to pay for them as well. Thanks for helping out.

Here's some cool news:

Free looping video clips are on the way that you'll be able to use in games, for website backgrounds, Zoom backgrounds and all kinds of other things.

Here's an example of how I used one as a background for my other website:

www.dunesisland.org/episodes

I think it really brings the page to life in a way that static images just can't.

Anyhow, I'll be opening those pages soon. Stay tuned.

NEWS

More Ogg Music Packs are ready!

A good number of content creators have asked me if they can download multiple music tracks all at once instead of one at a time, so I'm making higher quality Ogg music packs available that include all of the tracks for any given page once that page is full and I'm no longer adding any more tracks to it.

You'll see a button near the top of the page if a music pack is available.

Presently, music packs are available for the following pages:

Action 1

Chiptunes 1-3

Fantasy 1-10

Dark/Ominous

Horror / Surreal

Looping Music

Puzzle Music 1-5

Sci-Fi / Space

Feel free to convert them to WAV format (or whatever format your editing software supports.) <sup>o</sup>

If you find my work helpful, please consider making a small donation on my website to help support my efforts.

Have a joyous and safe holiday!

Happy New Year, fellow creatives!

Did everybody drink too much? I certainly hope so! 😊

Seriously, though, 2020 was pretty rough...I really hope 2021 is better.

Anyhow, here are some brand new MP3 music tracks to kick off the New Year. 100% free to use with attribution:

GOINGS-ON IN PIXEL TOWN (standard and looping)

THE 8-BIT MARCH (standard and looping)

WINDLE PIXEL'S 8-BIT CIRCUS (standard and looping)

NEWS

Continuing my quest to provide Ogg versions of all my music tracks, I just added my history music page to the list.

soundimage.org/ancient/

If you aren't familiar with the Ogg format, it has several advantages over MP3 audio:

-Ogg tracks sound fantastic...almost as good as the original WAV recordings from which they are derived...plus they are much smaller in terms of file size.

-Game engines handle looping Ogg tracks better...MP3 tracks occasionally have to be edited at the looping point.

Give them a try!

In the meantime, if you find my free MP3 tracks helpful, please consider making a small donation on my website to help support my efforts.

Have a good week and please stay safe.

“SCARY THINGS AHEAD 2”

soundimage.org/fantasy-11/

And a wild chiptunes-style track on my Chiptunes 4 page:

soundimage.org/chiptunes-4/

NEWS

It's great to see that people are beginning to download my Ogg music packs...I'm so glad they're helpful! Personally, I think they're a really good value...you get all of the Ogg tracks from any given page on my site (usually around 20) for the same price as purchasing 3 tracks individually. They're a great way to support my work...check them out!

The MP3 versions, as always, are completely free.

Speaking of which, if you find my free music to be helpful, please consider making a small donation on my website to help support my efforts.

Keep safe and stay healthy.
