Hi, I just wanted to ask if there is a coupon available for the Lightworks Pro Monthly License package. I don't have enough right now but I am going to invest in the yearly if not the Outright package ASAP, but in the meantime I want to learn and use this wonderful editing program as much as possible. Regards Aldo

You should be OK with upgrading your current computer, however, you also receive a complimentary activation in case you completely change your system.

I expect he receives the coupons from Editshare because he has been making third party video tutorials for a number of years.
